

His Jaw Broken.
PORTSMOUTH, G., Oct. 10.—Chas. Ross of Scotoville, jumped off a street car in this city. He was thrown against telephone pole and his jaw broken.

Dreyfus Family Will Go to Egypt.
PARIS, Oct. 10.—The Matin is authority for the statement that the Dreyfus family will shortly go to Egypt for the winter.

CHICAGO'S NEW GO

rade, in which marched representatives of 14 countries, including Germany, Venezuela, Switzerland, Brazil, the Netherlands, Austria and Hungary, Scotland, Armenia and Assyria, Belgium, China, Italy and the United States, included nearly 30 floats, some of them extremely beautiful and novel. The one that attracted the most attention was the great Chinese dragon which was shipped here from San Francisco for the all nation

A party of prominent New Yorkers, headed by Manager Meany, of the American Telephone Co., are en route. Senator John W. Daniel, representing the state of Virginia, is here.

The Meridian, Miss., delegates were named Monday, and the governor of

E. Gerry Brown, of Braintree, was nominated Monday for state auditor of Massachusetts on the democratic ticket in place of Walter L. Ramsdell, of Lynn, who declined to serve. Mr. Brown is one of the leaders of the populist party in that state.

of course, there were no well-known names among the switches. I was able to return it to me not perfectly satisfied, but if I found exactly as represented, a most extraordinary thing. You will want to keep it either for $1,500 net within 10 days or CASH ORDERS FOR 5 SWITCHES AT $1.60 EACH among your friends and send to me within 10 days. I will send the 5 switches to them direct for $1.60 to be paid for 10 days after receipt. I am perfectly satisfied and advise you to get the switch we have described.

We give Flaxon, Organs, Sewing Machines, Dishes, Furniture, Windows, Bay Windows, Corners and Sills, and all the latest novelties for the holidays. Give us your orders for the holidays.

Address, SEARS, ROEBUCK & CO., CHICAGO

LOST.
LOST Thursday morning between Central Hotel and L. & N. Depot small purse, containing $5 and 2 bills. Elk's card of Kirby's Lodge No. 437, Shelbyville, Ind., in name of John Warriner-b. Finder please return to this office and receive reward. JUL 11

175; common and large, $4.00@5.00.
CHICAGO, Oct. 2.
WHEAT—December, 72½c; May, 75½@73½.
CORN—October, 31½c; December, 30½@33½.
January, 30c; May, 31½@31½c.
OATS—October, 23½c; December, 22½@22½.
May, 24½@24½.

large, well-placed ornamentations and trimmings, extending large deep, genuine Kamahia poroula blood rooster, hand some large ornamental base. Best small burner made, genuine furs, FR&R in extra wood grain, making it a popular choice for the home. The FR&R is a 100% NATURAL, every stone and guarantee safe delivery to your local road station. Your local dealer would charge you $200 for such a stove, the freight is only about $10 to you for each 100 miles, and the FR&R is a 100% NATURAL.

FR&R, ROEBUCK & CO., INC., CHICAGO, ILL.

Chicago, Roebuck & Co. are thoroughly reliable - give

Public Ledger

OUR WATER BOX

[The Editor of The Ledger is not responsible for opinions expressed by Correspondents; he is not responsible for the character of any person who is admitted to these columns.]

Correspondents will please send Letters so as to reach us not later than a clock on, one fact in as few words as possible. We want news in this department, and not advertising notices or political arguments.

SPRINGFIELD SPLINTERS.

A Writer Who Hears to the Line, Regarding Where the Chips Fall.

Miss Ruth Cruger, who has been ill with malarial fever, is much better.

Mr. Edward Boyce returned Saturday from a visit among friends at Sandhill, Lewis county.

Mrs. John Butcher and daughter, Miss Emma, of Pike county, O., are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Bettie Cole and daughter, little Miss Gertrude, of Abertuska are visiting the family of Mr. L. Jeanes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Deagan returned Friday afternoon from a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. Steele Dudley at Flemingsburg and attending the reunion of the Tenth Kentucky Cavalry.

SHELLBARK SAYINGS.

Some Items of Interest From One of Mason County's Historic Litterals.

Miss Beanie Smith is attending school at Georgetown.

Miss Annie Myers is visiting friends at Cane Run a couple of weeks.

Funeral services are being held at Stewart's Chapel every night, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. T. B. Stratton.

John A. Bean and wife of Pineville are visiting Mrs. Bean's parents in Fleming county for a few days.

Mrs. Agatha Jenkins, wife of Walter Jenkins, is very ill at her home near Springfield. Dr. Hord is attending her.

Mrs. James Patton and little daughter have been down with fever. The mother is better but the little girl is still poorly.

Mrs. William King of Athens, Fayette county, visited her father, James Sarason, near Camp Spring for a few days last week.

Rev. T. J. Bowman, Pastor, assisted by Rev. B. B. Conley of Olive Hill, Carter county, will commence a protracted meeting at Pineville on Tuesday night before the third Sunday in November to run over Thanksgiving.

White-Cream Vermicelli is a highly valuable preparation, especially from the promptitude of its action, of removing the worms in a few hours of every worm. Price 50c. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

RIDING ON THE RAIL!

LOOK HERE FOR DATES AND LOW RATES.

Lexington and Return $2.00.

On account of trotting races at Nashville the L. and N. will sell round-trip tickets to Lexington October 30 to 10th at $2.00, return limit October 10th.

Nashville, Tenn. and Return $2.00.

On account of trotting races at Nashville the L. and N. will sell round-trip tickets to that point October 10th and 10th at $2.00, return limit October 20th.

W. C. T. U. Annual Convention, Seattle, Wash., October 17-20.

B. and O. S. W. will make a rate of one fare plus 25c for the round trip from all points on route. Tickets will be on sale October 10th and 10th, and will be good for return passage between Seattle and Tacoma November 17th, 1899. For further particulars call on Agents B. and O. S. W. Railroad, or address O. P. McCarty, General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, O.

Cincinnati and Return $1.75.

On account of Asian Forerunner and Sells Bros. Combined Circus, which exhibit in Cincinnati October 10th and 10th, the C. and O. will sell round-trip tickets Mayville to Cincinnati at rate of one fare, $1.75. Tickets on sale October 10th, return limit October 10th.

On account of the Christian Church Convention at Cincinnati October 10th to 20th the C. and O. will sell round-trip tickets Mayville to Cincinnati at rate of $1.75. Tickets on sale October 10th to 10th inclusive.

For all fresh cuts or wounds, in either the human subject or animal, is a dressing. Ballou's Snow Liniment is especially; while for sores on working horses it is equally as good to heal, or suppurate, or to soothe, or to cure. It is unequalled. Price, 25c and 50c. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

THE OLD RELIABLE

CINCINNATI WEEKLY GAZETTE.

(Weekly Edition of The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune)

The FAMILY Newspaper.

Special Departments devoted to Agriculture, Poultry, Markets, Literature, with other Special Features.

IMPROVED! ENLARGED! IN NEW FORM!

NOW 20 PAGES. 50c. YEAR. NOW 20 PAGES.

The Weekly Gazette has the largest circulation of any weekly published in the West. Read by over 300,000 people.

WANTED AGENTS SEND FOR SPECIAL TERMS. COMMERCIAL TRIBUNE CO. CINCINNATI, OHIO.

ME AND JO.

A Beautiful Poem Which Might Appear in School Readers.

[Note: The following beautiful poem might appear in the new series of School Readers soon to be published by the "Curious-Journal 'Job' Company" for the school children of Kentucky.]

There's a game that I can play—

Me and Jo:

I'm a ricker in my way—

Me and Jo:

I can steal a termination,

I can split a conjugation,

And my free in conjugation

I try to make that old "game" so

I'm a "shot" on a speech—

Me and Jo:

I can use of "poor" or "poorish"

Me and Jo:

When I talk of that convention

Judgment holds I don't mention—

L. & J. gets no attention.

I try to make that old "game" so

There's no "winning" at the "Trust"

Me and Jo:

See me, health, for I trust—

Me and Jo:

I can steal a "trust" for my friend

I can split a "trust" for my friend

And I can split the "Trust's" good

"Trust."

There I keep the working man—

Me and Jo:

And I "work" him all I can—

Me and Jo:

There are others, too—young China

That I keep in "the dead to skin."

But I can't know it though.

As a loss I'm sure "IT"

Me and Jo:

I'm the people's "eviler-NIT"

Me and Jo:

If I can't talk of my coat,

So the people all may note,

The "eviler," cure and cure I note,

Splitting through the state with Jo.

Inspiration For the Young.

The election of General Garfield to the presidency of the United States was one of the grandest inspirations the poor young man of America ever revealed, and the consequences of that election on the lives and characters of young men will never be known.

It was far-reaching in its influence and effects, and was one of the grandest, brightest chapters in the history of our republic. In like manner we regard the election of General Taylor to the high position of governor of our state.

Many a poor boy, upon whose young life is laid the burden of poverty and toil, out of whose soul is shut the sweetness of youth's morning, the comforts and pleasures of wealth and station, may take heart again and take up his burden with a new resolve, "I'll achieve, still pursuing, with a heart for any fate."—Green River Republican.

A Grateful Soldier.

John Vance, an Iowa soldier who fought in 22 battles with the Uth battery, has just returned to his home in Scranton. The Scranton Journal interviewed him, and it says in part: "Vance says the soldiers were treated just as well as it is possible for any government to treat its defenders in a foreign country.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

When Editor Morris said to William Goebel, "Senator, if you publish this article it will bring on serious trouble with Sanford," what was the response of this immaculate candidate for governor, by grace and favor of force, fraud, treachery and the police and firemen of Louisville? "G—d—him; that's what I want." Read the vile and infamous article which William Goebel wrote and caused to be published in the Covington Ledger and Mr. Tom Pettit is answered. It may be that William Goebel does not know, and it may be that he does not smoke. But that he is profane and vile in his language in his home town is known.

"Before we started up," said Jack Hendrick, referring to the killing of Sanford, "we had several toddlers," and the "we" comprised William Goebel and himself.

Goebel's Profanity.

GEORGE W. SMITH, PLUMBER.

Gas, Steam, Hot Water Fitter. 87 Wall street, between Second and Third, opposite Dr. Picant's residence. Phone 27.

City Taxes! 1899.

Receipts for City Taxes of 1899 are now in my hands for collection. On all unpaid November let a penalty of 10 per cent. will be added.

JAS. W. FITZGERALD, City Treasurer.

Office—Keith-Schroeder Harness Co.

Camps

Our new stock are of the latest designs and colorings at a cost that will surprise you. Nice selection of odd Globes.

Schatzmann, FOUNTAINPARK.

Dr. R. Goldstein,

Of No. 44 Fourth avenue, Louisville, Ky., will be at the New Central Hotel Mayville, Ky.

Tuesday, October 24th, 1899.

Eyes examined and Glasses scientifically adjusted.

THE VERGE OF HAPPINESS.

You are on the verge of happiness of a very sweet and pleasant kind when you are near our Fine Candies, near enough to provide you with your friends with a best of

TRAXEL'S.

L. H. Landman, M. D.

Of No. 54 West Ninth street, Cincinnati, O., will be at the Central Hotel, Mayville, Ky.

THURSDAY, OCT. 5th, 1899.

Returning every first Thursday of each month.

JARDENIERES, FLOWER POTS, UMBRELLA STANDS, VASES!

Do you want a nice Jardener, Flower Pot or Vase? The nicest and the cheapest ever brought to the city. Call at

G. F. Brown's

China Palace,

40 West Second Street, Mayville, Ky.

SEASONABLE DRYGOODS

—FANCY AND STAPLE—

CARPETS, OILCLOTHS, MATTINGS. Housekeeping Goods Generally on Hand.

GEO. COX & SON.

Beginning Tuesday, March 1st, and on the first of each month thereafter, we will give free to every lady visiting our store a copy of "Modes and Fabrics," a monthly journal of fashion and literature.

F. C. McCOLM MONUMENTS

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

All Lettering with Pneumatic Machinery.

Factory, Manchester, O.

Branch, West Second Street, Mayville, Ky.

MRS. M. H. GILMORE, Resident Manager.

Extraordinary Bargains!

Are being offered during Fair week at the New York Store of Hays & Co.

DRESS GOODS.

Half wool Plaid only 5c per yard; all wool Mixtures at 15c, worth 35c; all wool Plaid 35c; Overalls in the new shades 45c; black silk Crenon 35c; worth $1.50; see our novelties in Venetians, Netmoss, Gallesfield, etc. cheaper than ever; Silks, plain colors and fancy, regular price 75c; this week only 45c; Netmoss for waists 45c.

CAPE.

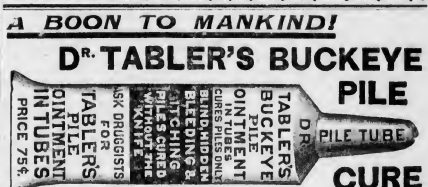

We can show you a nice Cape for 85c; Jackets from $2 on up; elegant Golf Capes $2.99 only; worth $5; see our line of baby and little girls' Cloaks; best shown in Mayville.

SHOES.

We now have the best assorted line of Shoes ever gathered under one roof. Our $2 Ladies Shoes this week at $1.30; ladies' $1.50 Shoes this week $1.10; Gents, we can sell you the best $3 Shoes for $2—the new toe box, calf and round calf, all sizes.

HAYS & CO. NEW YORK STORE. EVERYBODY WELCOME.

A BOON TO MANKIND! DR. TABLER'S BUCKEYE PILE CURE

A New Discovery for the Certain Cure of INTERNAL and EX